GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. PURCHASE ORDER CONTRACT

1.1. PURCHASE ORDER AND ACCEPTANCE

Each purchase order Buyer issues ("Purchase Order") is Buyer's offer to purchase the products ("Products") and services ("Services") identified in that Purchase Order. The terms and conditions ("Terms and Conditions") set forth herein and on the face side of the Purchase Order constitute the parties' contractual agreement and supersede any previous oral or written representations, including but not limited to provisions in Seller's quotations, proposals, acknowledgements or other documents. Any clerical errors contained on the face side are subject to correction by Buyer. Seller will be deemed to have accepted a Purchase Order as issued (1) if Seller fails to object to it in writing within 10 business days after receipt, or (2) if Seller has begun performance under the Purchase Order, or (3) if Seller acknowledges in writing its acceptance of the Purchase Order. Upon acceptance, the Purchase Order together with these Terms and Conditions and any other documents specifically incorporated in the Purchase Order or specifically incorporated in the Purchase Order or separately agreed to in writing, such as specifications, drawings, requirements of Buyer's customer, or quality requirements will become a binding contract between Buyer and Seller (collectively, the "Contract"). Only these Terms and Conditions and any other terms set out in a Purchase Order or document referenced in these Terms shall be binding upon the parties. No objection to these Terms and Conditions or reservation of rights by Seller shall be effective. TERMS AND CONDITIONS IN AN ATTEMPTED ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF AN ORDER, OFFER OR OTHER SELLER DOCUMENT INCONSISTENT WITH OR IN ADDITION TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF A PURCHASE ORDER ARE NOT BINDING UPON BUYER (UNLESS SPECIFICALLY ACCEPTED BY BUYER IN WRITING), AND BUYER HEREBY OBJECTS THERETO. No course of performance or dealing by the parties shall be construed to waive, modify or otherwise adversely affect Buyer's rights or Seller's obligations. Specific terms and conditions on the Purchase Order and the other documents comprising the Contract will take priority over any inconsistent provision in these Terms and Conditions.

1.2. AMENDMENT TO TERMS

No exception to, deviation from, or waiver of these Terms and Conditions shall be valid or binding on Buyer unless specified on the face of a Purchase Order or Purchase Order amendment or made in a signed writing by Buyer's authorized representative. Any such exceptions, deviations or waivers shall apply only to the specific purchase order for which they are granted and shall not constitute a course of dealing.

1.3. PURCHASE ORDER CHANGES

Buyer may from time to time by notice to Seller make changes, within the scope of the Contract, to the drawings, specifications, materials, packaging, testing, quantity, time, or method of delivery or shipment, or similar requirements prescribed in the Contract. Within 10 days of such notice, at Seller's request with appropriate supporting documentation, the parties will negotiate an equitable adjustment based on a fair cost assessment to the Contract prices and times for performance as a result of Buyer's changes. Time is of the essence for a request for an equitable adjustment. Time is of the essence for an request for an equitable adjustment. Contract changes must be in writing and signed by Buyer's and Seller's authorized representative.

3.2 CURRENT-MODEL SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

Current-model production pricing will hold for past-model service products for a minimum of 3 years after end of vehicle production program. After the 3 year window has passed and additional negotiations become necessary, the parties will negotiate in good faith the prices, quantities, and delivery terms for past-model service Products based on the availability and cost of needed materials, supplies, skilled workers, plus additional costs for equipment setup, packaging, shipping and handling, related services, and other relevant factors. NSI will not be obligated to pay Seller any other or additional amounts for the Products and Services, or reimburse Seller for any other expenses, other than those expressly described in the Purchase Order. Under no circumstances shall the Seller ever be entitled to receive any price increase as a result of any increase in Seller's cost of raw materials, labor, or any other price increase of any kind. NSI will be responsible for the payment of any sales or use taxes levied as a result of Products and Services provided under the Purchase Order, provided that such taxes must be listed separately on the invoice. A Party that is owed an undisputed amount by the other Party may, at its option, set off any such undisputed amount as a credit against any amounts it otherwise owes to the other Party. If NSI disputes any amount in an invoice in good faith, NSI will pay the undisputed portion of such invoice when due and payable and may, at its option, withhold the disputed portion pending the resolution of such dispute.

The Seller, upon request from the Buyer, shall provide information including all available performance evaluations, accident reports, engineering investigations, data relating to the potential recall and information regarding the most cost-effective method of modifying or replacing vehicle systems or component parts, including the products, in order to remedy the alleged defect or non-compliance.

8.1 INDEMINIFICATION

To the full extent permitted by applicable law and independent of any insurance, Seller agrees to indemnify, hold harmless and defend Buyer and its affiliated companies, their directors, officers, employees, successors, assigns, agents, and customers (“Indemnities”) from and against any and all damages, losses, claims, liabilities, expenses (including but not limited to court damages, economic loss and loss of profits, warranty sharing and fines and penalties) arising out of or resulting in any way from any defect in the goods delivered or services rendered under this Contract, or any injury to any person (including death) or damage to property caused by the Seller, its employees, agents, or subcontractors (“Seller and its representatives”); or any act or omission of Seller and its representatives pursuant to this Contract or in connection with their performance of any work for, and/or on the premises of the Buyer, except that the Seller shall not be responsible for or relieve Buyer from liability for claims arising from the willful misconduct or the sole negligence of the Buyer. This indemnification obligation shall be in addition to the Seller’s warranty obligations.

8.2 PROCEDURE

Buyer will notify Seller promptly after Buyer becomes aware of the basis for a claim under this Section 8. The parties will cooperate with each other to attempt to determine the root cause of a defect in or failure of the products (and related systems and components) and to attempt to reach an equitable allocation of responsibility among all responsible parties. Buyer, in its sole discretion, may allow Seller the opportunity to examine and test all available products and related systems and components that are subject to a third-party claim. Buyer may endeavor to include the Seller in settlement discussions where indemnity has been or will be sought from the Seller, and Buyer may not settle or compromise any third-party claim that gives rise to an indemnification claim without the Seller’s prior written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

9. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

Seller will comply with applicable laws, rules, and regulations of the country where the products are manufactured or the services are performed. Seller will provide the Buyer with material safety data sheets regarding the products and, upon Buyer’s request, will provide the Buyer with other information reasonably required in order to comply with applicable laws.

10.1 BUYER'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

10.2 SELLER'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Except as stated in this Section 10.2, Seller does not transfer to the Buyer any Intellectual Property Right of Seller related to the products or services or incorporated in Buyer's Property, other than the right to incorporate products purchased from Seller in vehicles and component parts and to sell those vehicles and component parts to the public. If the Contract is terminated by the Seller or Buyer pursuant to Section 12 (other than by Seller legally establishing by Buyer's Default), Seller grants to Buyer a non-exclusive right and license to use the Seller's Intellectual Property Rights, subject to Section 14, to obtain from alternate sources products and services similar to the products and services for use in vehicles or component parts covered by the terminated Contract other than legally established by Seller for Buyer's Default and for the balance of the Contract term at the termination effective date. There will be no fee for this license if (1) Buyer terminates the Contract for Seller's Default, or (2) Seller terminates the Contract other than for the Buyer's Default or pursuant to Section 16. Otherwise, the parties will reasonably attempt to negotiate a reasonable fee for use of Seller's Intellectual Property Rights.

10.3 INFRINGEMENT

- (a) Subject to Section 10.3(b), Seller will indemnify and defend Buyer and its customers against claims, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, and expenses, including reasonable legal fees, arising out of the actual or alleged infringement by the products of a third-party Intellectual Property Right in the United States, European Union, or Japan or any other jurisdiction. If a claim under this Section 10.3 results, or is likely to result, in an injunction or other order that would prevent the Seller from supplying or Buyer from using products for their intended purpose, Seller will at its option and expense and with Buyer's approval, either (i) secure a license of the Intellectual Property Right that permits Seller to continue supplying the products to the Buyer, or (ii) modify the products so that they become non-infringing, so long as the modification does not materially alter the operation or performance of the products, or (iii) replace the products with non-infringing but practically equivalent products.
- (b) In the event of Seller's liability under this Section 10.3, Buyer agrees to provide Seller with full information, cooperation, and assistance regarding, and authority to defend, a claim covered by this Section 10.3.

11. PROPERTY

11.1 BUYER'S PROPERTY

- (a) Buyer will own the tooling, jigs, dies, gauges, fixtures, molds, patterns, supplies, materials, and other equipment and property used by Seller to manufacture, store, and transport products or provide services ("Property") if (1) the property is so designated in the contract, or (2) Buyer or its customer has provided or paid for the Property ("Buyer's Property"). Seller will assign to Buyer contract rights or claims in which Seller has an interest with respect to Buyer's Property and execute bills of sale, financing statements, or other documents reasonably requested by the Buyer to evidence its or its customer's ownership of Buyer's Property. Seller will indemnify and defend Buyer against claims or liens adverse to Buyer's or its customer's ownership of Buyer's Property except those that result from the acts or omissions of Buyer or its customer. Seller will hold Buyer's Property on a bailment basis and will be responsible for loss or damage to Buyer's Property while in its possession or control. To the extent permitted by law, Seller waives any lien or similar right it may have with respect to Buyer's Property. - (b) Seller will (1) at its expense maintain Buyer's Property in good condition and repair, normal wear and tear excepted, throughout the useful life of Buyer's Property, (2) use Buyer's Property only for the manufacture, storage, and transport of Products for Buyer unless Buyer otherwise approves in writing, (3) at Buyer's request and expense, mark Buyer's Property as belonging to Buyer or its customer, and (4) not remove Buyer's Property (other than shipping containers and the like) from Seller's premises without Buyer's written approval. All replacement parts, additions, improvements, and accessories to Buyer's Property will become part of Buyer's Property unless they can be removed without damaging the Buyer's Property.

- (c) Buyer will pay for the Buyer's Property that it is required to purchase at the amount specified in the Contract or, if no amount is specified in the Contract, at (1) Seller's actual cost of the Buyer's Property, if manufactured by a third party, or (2) Seller's actual cost of purchased materials, components, and services plus Seller's actual cost of labor and overhead allocable to the Buyer's Property, if manufactured by the Seller. Unless otherwise stated in the Contract, final payment for the Buyer's Property is due (i) on the vehicle manufacturer's PPAP (Production Part Approval Process) approval date, or (ii) within 90 days after the Property is tendered for PPAP approval if no action has then been taken on the request for PPAP approval.
- (d) Seller will immediately release to Buyer upon request, and Buyer may retake immediate possession of, Buyer's Property and other property of Buyer or its customers at any time, with or without cause and without payment of any kind unless otherwise provided in the Contract. Seller will release the requested Property and other property to Buyer F.C.A Seller's plant (Incoterms 2000), properly packed and marked in accordance with the requirements of the Buyer's carrier. If the release or recovery of Buyer's Property or other property renders Seller unable to produce a Product, the release or recovery will be deemed a termination of the Contract with respect to that Product pursuant to Sections 12 or 13, as applicable.

11.2 SELLER'S PROPERTY

Seller will own all Property that is not Buyer's Property ("Seller's Property"). Seller will at its expense furnish, maintain in good condition, and replace when necessary Seller's Property needed to perform the Contract. While a Contract for products remains in effect, Buyer may purchase Seller's Property used exclusively to produce those products and not needed by the Seller to produce products or products for other customers, for a purchase price equal to the greater of fair market value or Seller's unamortized acquisition cost.

12. TERM AND TERMINATION

The following constitute "for cause" terminations of the Contract: (i) late deliveries; (ii) deliveries of goods and services that are defective or that do not conform to this Contract; (iii) breach by the Seller of the terms and conditions of this Contract; (iv) failure upon request to provide the Buyer with reasonable assurances of future performance; (v) insolvency of the Seller; (vi) the filing of an involuntary petition of bankruptcy against Seller or a voluntary petition by Seller; (vii) the execution by Seller of an assignment for the benefits of creditors; (viii) the commencement of any receivership or like proceedings relating to the Seller's assets; (ix) if the Seller is a party to a merger, consolidation, or other extraordinary corporate transaction in which it is not the surviving entity. In the event of termination of the Contract by the Buyer for cause, Buyer shall not be liable to Seller for any amount, and the Seller shall be liable to Buyer for all damages, direct or indirect, consequential and incidental, sustained by reason of the default which gave rise to the termination, including, but not limited to, excess costs incurred by the Buyer as a result of obtaining the goods and services from another source.

- (b) Buyer reserves the right to terminate this Contract or any term or condition under this Contract, in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time, for its sole convenience. In the event of such termination, Seller shall immediately stop all work and cause all of its Sellers and subcontractors to cease and work on the portion of the Contract so terminated. Upon approval by the Buyer, as Seller's sole compensation for the Buyer's termination of the Contract or portions thereof, Seller shall be paid a reasonable termination charge consisting solely of an amount equal to the purchase price of the finished goods and services accepted by the Buyer, as set forth in this Contract, and documented costs to the Seller of work in process and raw materials. Within 30 days after receipt of a termination notice, Seller shall submit its claim. Buyer reserves the right to verify the claim by auditing all relevant records. Seller shall not be paid for any work performed after receipt of the notice of termination, nor for any costs incurred by Sellers or subcontractors. In no event shall the Buyer be liable for loss of profits, overhead, general and administrative charges, product development and engineering costs, interest, finance or hedging costs, unamortized depreciation costs, or any other direct or indirect cancellation charges or damages of any kind. Seller covenants not to bring any claims of any kind for any such losses, costs, charges or damage. Seller shall transfer title and deliver to Buyer, if so requested by Buyer, all undelivered goods, tools, work in process or raw materials paid for by Buyer as provided above.

13.1 EVENTS OF DEFAULT

Time is of the essence and, subject to Section 16, either party will be in "Default" under the Contract if it (1) fails to perform any obligation under the Contract and, if the non-performance can be cured, fails to cure the non-performance within 15 business days after notice from the other party specifying the non-performance, (2) admits in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due, commences a bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, or similar proceeding, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, (3) becomes a debtor in a bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership, or similar proceeding commenced by a third party that is not dismissed within 30 days after commencement, or (4) fails to provide adequate assurance of performance under the Contract within three business days after written demand by the other party.

- (b) Either party may recover from the other party actual out-of-pocket damages or costs directly caused by the other party's breach of the Contract, regardless of whether the breach subsequently becomes a Default with the passage of time or giving of notice or both. industry practices, and the overall volume, scope, and profitability of other business relationships between the Seller and Buyer.

If Buyer is in Default, Seller's damages will include (1) the Contract price for completed Products and Services and the actual cost of work-in-process and raw materials (which will become Buyer's property upon payment in full), and (2) the cost of unreimbursed and unamortized research and development, capital equipment, Property, and supplies that are unique to the products.
- (d) If Seller does not release or deliver the Buyer's Property or other property of Buyer or its customers in accordance with Section 11.1 (d), Buyer may at Seller's cost (1) obtain an immediate court order for possession without notice and without posting a bond, and (2) enter Seller's premises, with or without legal process, and take immediate possession of Buyer's Property and the other property. In the event Buyer is required to enforce this contract pursuant to Section 13, then Buyer shall be entitled to recover from Seller any and all costs and attorney fees of such enforcement. To the extent permitted by law, Seller waives any right to object to Buyer's repossession of Buyer's Property and the other property in a bankruptcy or other proceeding.
- (e) EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE EXPRESSEDLY AUTHORIZED IN THE CONTRACT OR UNDER THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS, ALL INDIRECT, SPECIAL, CONSEQUENTIAL (INCLUDING LOST PROFITS OR MARKET SHARE OR DAMAGE TO BRAND VALUE), INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE, AND EXEMPLARY DAMAGES, WHETHER OR NOT FORESEEABLE, ARE EXCLUDED UNDER THESE GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.
